THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

Madras Pearl Fishery, 1927.DECLARATION NOTICE.

1. Notice is hereby given that a Pearl Fishery will be held at Tuticorin commencing on or about the 26th of February 1927.
2. The bank to be fished is Thalayiram Par which is estimated to contain about eight crores of mature oysters.
3. Applications for the registry of boats and divers will be received by the Superintendent of Pearl and Chank Fisheries, Tuticorin, up to 15th February 1927.
4. No boats over 20 tons will be employed and the Samman Otties are strictly warned that no large boats will be employed under any circumstance.
5. Fishing is expected to commence on the 26th of February 1927, and all boats and men registered should report themselves at the Beach Master's Office in the Pearl Fishery Camp (Silavathurai), not later than the 23rd of February.
6. Every boat-owner whose boat is accepted for the fishery shall sign an undertaking to observe the rules issued for the conduct of boats and divers during the fishing operations; a copy of these rules will be supplied to all applicants. To ensure the due observance of these rules, a deposit of Rs. 5 for each diver returnable at the close of the fishery shall be lodged as security by each boat-owner with the Superintendent of Pearl and Chank Fisheries, Tuticorin.
7. The fishery will be conducted on account of Government and the oysters put up for sale in such lots as may be deemed expedient.
8. The Pearl Fishery Camp (Silavathurai) is about two miles north and within easy reach of Tuticorin Town which is a terminus of the South Indian Railway. Tuticorin is in steamer communication with Colombo.
9. Provisions, water and building materials will be available for purchase in the Camp. Sites for quarters, oyster washing thotties, pearl shops and boutiques will be auctioned ten days prior to the date of the commencement of the fishery, i.e., on or about the 15th of February 1927. Boarding and lodging will generally be available in the Camp, besides the facilities available at Tuticorin.
10. Efficient sanitary and other arrangements are being made to prevent the importation of epidemic diseases into the Camp.
11. Payments for oysters should be in cash or in Government of India notes. Drafts on the Imperial Bank of India and other Bank Agencies will also be received on letters of credit being produced to warrant the drawing of such drafts.
12. Further particulars may be obtained from the Superintendent of Pearl and Chank Fisheries, Tuticorin.

NOTICE.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

NOTICE.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

NOTICE.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

NOTICE.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Unconquered Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.
